

Refuge du Lac Blanc
A new chapter :
winter edition !

6 March > mid-April
Conditions apply

Ski Touring – Your Winter Base Camp

For the first time ever, the Refuge du Lac Blanc opens its doors in winter. This heated high-altitude mountain hut offers breathtaking views over the Mont-Blanc massif, making it the perfect base camp for ski touring. Enjoy unforgettable sunrises and sunsets, warm hospitality, and half-board accommodation or lunch during your day on the slopes.

Ski Touring Routes

(Subject to snow and weather conditions)

Beginner to Intermediate

Col du Belvédère (out and back).
Col des Dards (out and back).
Col de Beugeant (out and back,
or via Bérard Valley).
Col de l'Encrenaz.

Advanced Skiers (All return via Bérard Valley)

Aiguille du Belvédère
Pointe Alphonse Favre
Aiguille de la Tête Plate

Access

Flégère or Index cable car.

Starry Nights

As night falls, discover the beauty of the alpine sky. We offer stargazing sessions using our telescopes, subject to weather conditions.

Safety & Guidance

A qualified mountain guide is recommended. The Avalanche Risk Bulletin (BERA) must be consulted before departure:
www.chamonix.com/bulletin-avalanche

refugelacblanc.com
contact@refugelacblanc.com
00 33 7 81 32 36 55

